Summer school of Russian language & culture (27.06.2013 - 18.07.2013; Voronezh, Russia)

ABOUT THE PROJECT:

The programme will be practically oriented. You will learn to buy food on the local Russian market or in shops and markets, to receive information on the local train station, plan your route, etc. Surely you will immerse in the real life of the Russian province, learn its traditions and all day life. The course is targeted on development of communicative skills, improvement of speaking, enlargement of daily vocabulary and on cultural understanding of Russian values, traditions and customs. It is a great start for you before you plan your travel over Russia. Classes will be daily 2-3 hours a day. On the weekends excursions and sightseeing is planned.

LOCATION, ACCOMMODATION AND FOOD:

It will be organised 140 km from Voronezh that has international airport as well; or 50 km from Liski that has direct train connection to Moscow.

It is a tent camp. Tents and mattresses provided. It is important that you bring warm clothes and warm sleeping bag. This camping is a typically way of rural life in Russia: toilets are outside and they are of latrine kind. There will be equipped summer showers with water heated by the sun. All participants have an opportunity to cook his/her national specialities, the basic ingredients can be bought on the market.

LEISURE:

Excursions and day trips will be organized to the natural preserve and open air museum Divnogorye, to the neighbor towns and the city Voronezh. Additionally volunteers can swim without any limitations, go fishing, hiking and sunbathe!
