

Dear Everybody,

Interested in connecting with 11 cities all over Africa, Asia and Europe?
Or maybe feel like discovering some sustainable initiatives in Brussels?
And what about just connecting to other engaged persons in Belgium?

The 19th MitOst Festival takes place in September in Moldova. Due to the pandemic MitOst developed a decentralized concept with many so-called “Satellite Festivals”, one of them taking place in Brussels. We thought, the European Capital cannot miss that...

Our programme:

Friday, September 24th:

- 18.00 Meeting in Mundo Madou (Avenue des Arts 7-8, 1210 Brussels, Room TBD and getting to know each other
- 19.00 We join together the international Quiznight where we connect with other Satellite Festivals all over the globe
- 20.00 Having some drinks, snacks and beers and just connect

Saturday, September 25th:

- From 9.30 on: Meeting in Be Here (Rue Dieudonné Lefèvre 4, 1020 Bruxelles)
- 10.00 to 11.00: Connecting with the other Satellite Cities
- 11.30 to ~14.30: Sustainable Walking City Tour in Brussels organized by Sustainable Brussels and getting to know actors in the field
- 14.30 to ... Well, it's your Saturday but feel free to join us for a coffee :)

You see, it's a compact, diverse, fun and hopefully useful event. Raluca Besliu and Matthias Haberl are the main organizers for the Brussels Festival, feel free to get in touch with us:

Raluca Besliu: raluca.besliu@gef.eu, +32.494.93.29.58

Matthias Haberl: matthiastraining@gmx.net, +32 488 383467

Please be aware that we organise it pro bono. If you want to join, please simply send an Email with your name and your phone number to matthiastraining@gmx.net . It is also possible to join only on Friday evening or Saturday morning, please indicate that briefly in the Email.

And finally the best news: Everything is totally and absolutely free :-)
